Council Nixes Hike In Activities Fee

Student Council, in an emergency meeting the afternoon before vacation, decided unanimously to leave the activities fee cost where it now stands.

Previously, Council voted to raise the fee and later decided that the raise should be to $10 per semester. As the voting was deemed too close for "positive action," a re-vote was called.

The motion, passed Friday, Dec. 19, read so as to leave way open for Council to raise the fee "if and when the need arose."

Council's decision was not to vote against the raise, but to vote against the immediate $4 raise.

Tuesday noon, Council held a luncheon in the Second Floor Lounge of Alumni Hall and a convocation at 4 P. M. in Carlson Lecture Hall. A regular meeting of Council will be held next Tuesday at 10 A. M. in the Council Chambers.

Exams Scheduled For Engineering Jobs In California

Senior civil engineering students who would like to work in California after graduation can qualify through a civil service examination to be given on a nationwide basis Feb. 28. Applications must be in the hands of the California State Personnel Board, Sacramento, by Jan. 31.

Graduates can go to work at once on California's giant highway program, the said. Mid-year graduates may apply for temporary appointment and qualify by examination later.

Positions exist in nearly all parts of California, the board said. The beginning rank is junior civil engineer, with a starting salary $341 a month and a top of $395. Frequent promotional opportunities occur.

The examination will be given at or near all campuses where there are qualified applicants. Descriptive bulletins and applications for the California exam are available from the campus placement officer.

The Faculty Is Saying....

Since glass is the only product we produce nowadays with any degree of durability, the only trace of our civilization for future historians to study will be empty beer bottles strewn all over the place.

Make-Up Exam Permission Due By Wednesday Next

Students desiring to take make-up tests should have their request filed at Dr. Wolff's office before Wednesday of next week.

The testing period will be next Saturday morning at 10 A. M. in T-210.

Political Paper Due Out Soon

In an effort to make campus politics-conscious, Emilio Riccio President of the Political Relations forum has announced that a by-partisan newspaper, published by that organization, will come out with its first issue this week.

The paper, nameless at the moment, will be edited by Martin Hosen, a Junior majoring in Education. Hosen, president of the Literary Society and a member of Pi Omega Chi fraternity, has stated that the paper will take a bi-partisan approach on campus political issues.

The new newspaper should prove to be controversial in nature and they will be glad to accept contributions from UB students or members of the University families.

Scribe Now 'On Sale' Only In Alumni Hall

Effective with this issue of THE SCRIBE, this paper will be distributed in the snack bar of Alumni Hall ONLY.

No deliveries will be made to dorms, class buildings, or any University offices.

Littlefield Authors Text

Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice president of the University, has announced the publication of his fourth book "Basic American Documents."

Co-authors of the book were George B. de Tuzzer, lecturer in political science at Northwestern University and Arthur W. Littlefield, general editor of the Littlefield College Outline series.

The 360 page, paper-bound volume is a compilation of 110 famous American documents, speeches and legal decisions selected by the authors by polling 277 history professors throughout the country.

Arranged chronologically by event, the book shows a continuity of the important American events from the signing of the first Chapter of Virginia in 1616 to Gen. Douglas MacArthur's address to Congress in April 19, 1951. Each document is introduced by a short historical background.

Dr. Littlefield's first book, "New Outline History of Europe, Since 1815," now in its 16th edition, has sold nearly 4,000,000 copies. He is also co-author of "New Outline History of Europe, 1500-1931" and "American Government."

Dusty Intruders

'Tis with extreme sadness that we note the presence of intruders in our new cafeteria and it is our hopeful plea that this situation be quickly remedied.

Unfortunately, these obnoxious outsiders do not shape into the form of mere mortals. If this were the case, a rapid and efficient departure could be arranged. However, the intruders we speak of are much more diminutive and extremely unpleasant to the eye.

They are the cigarette butts, napkins and assorted particles that for some unknown reason, fail to find their proper home in the receptacles and inevitably end up on the floor.

The original owners of the above mentioned objects are apparently unaware that we're no longer enjoying the facilities of our recently departed friend, "Snack-Bar", who never seemed to mind the presence of accumulated paper and waste on her floor.

In place of the "Stables" we have a new and beautiful cafeteria where we may enjoy our meals or simply "coffee and" in pleasant and, we hope, clean surroundings.

Let's face it. While we're eating or merely sitting around talking, the cafeteria is serving as a substitute for our own living room, dining room or kitchen, where it would be inconceivable to think that we'd nonchalantly toss butts or napkins on the floor indiscriminately.

Let's make a sincere effort to give our cafeteria the same respect that we'd give our own home. By adhering to the few simple rules the committee has posted we can promote better efficiency and insure the enjoyment of relaxing in a CLEAN cafeteria.

What '53 Holds In Store

An apprehensive year faces the world of '53. It will be a year of the guessing game; what policy will the new administration follow? And probably for the first time in many-a-year Stalin and crew will be wondering what the next history-making event will be.

There are new faces in our Congress; so many, in fact, that many are not able to recognize fellow Congressmen. Will there be a new boom to business with the new Republican administration? And will Congress march toward new horizons or become bogged down with everyone investigating the investigators?

These are questions of earth shattering importance, but there are other questions, maybe not as far reaching, facing the American public. Will television be outlawed so that students may once more do their homework? How about Marilyn Monroe replacing Eleanor in the UN? What will Harry do now? Margaret can always support him since no President leaves the White House with more money than when he entered.

Here at UB we wonder what new acquisitions will be added to our college. Will real food be now served at our cafeteria? Will panty raids strike for the first time at UB? And what cigarette should we prefer? These certainly are troubled times we face and only time will tell the answer.

"Well, sir, there I was in the second chukker and my pony stumbled"

by Andy Demotzes

Well, well, well, another Christmas vacation and New Year's Eve have passed and we are back in school until Jan. 28. . . when we get another, but short one. . . (Vacation that is).

Many things have happened over the vacation. . . the Seawall has been completely redecorated, some students have been plinned, others are married, some have left school and many others passed out at parties.

Jim Street, UB '51, was married Dec. 20, according to his friend and honeymoon companion Bob Donaldson.

A surprise (at least to me) was the news of Jerry Reilly's marriage to Joan Del Vecchio over the holidays.

One step down the ladder of marriage. (Watch out for the weak rungs) is an engagement. Rodger O'Neill is engaged to DH Alumnae Elaine Kilby. Elaine was one of the court of the 1952 Wistarian Queen. . . P. S. Rodger gave her the ring on Christmas Eve.

A former UB student now in the US Marines, Les Sullivan, gave a ring to Edy Bouliou, a girl from Stratford, over the festive vacation.

The first step away from freedom and the farthest step from marriage is to be plinned. Congratulations to the following couples, I hope they enjoy happiness all their lives. Nick Levycky plinned a girl back home during the vacation. Her name is Terry Burachok, a soph at Kutztown State Teachers College in Pa.

Chick Matt plinned Cecil Jewett from Seaside Hall.

UBS copped the Salvation Army Kettle drive on Fraternity day bringing in $180.

Editor of the Political Relations Forum's new paper is Marty Hosen, a long term English major. There are now three papers, including the Evening Division's Twilight Review. More competition for The SCRIBE.

Fraternity ADO celebrated their pledge week with a cocktail party, Hell night on Saturday and another party at Bob Weiss' home in Greenwich.

BG would like to thank the gentleman who played Santa Claus at their party for the Main St. Day Nursery before vacation. (His name is Ben Gallucci).

Alumni Hall Mail Boxes Free To Student Groups

Organizations and clubs desiring mail boxes in Alumni Hall should contact the Student Activities office, at AH2 by Jan. 31, states Marilyn Coleman of the office of Student Activities.

Dear Editor-

Thanks a lot for The SCRIBES you sent me. They are usually a couple of weeks late. But better late than never.

I would like to congratulate you and your staff for returning to UB a fighting, student newspaper and not a glamorous information bulletin. Once again The SCRIBE looks, sounds and even smells like a campus newspaper should.

There is only one way to defeat campus apathy and that is with a strong, vigorous press willing to assume its role of campus leadership.

To you I say keep your torch of light held high so that you may drive away forever the shadow of student apathy that hangs over our campus. This is a big job but I have confidence in your ability to do it.

Best wishes for continued success. Keep up the good work. Give my regards to those members of the staff that remember me.

Sincerely,
Ben Raubvogel

Registration Pitfalls Seen

Students are urged to have a list of the courses needed for the Spring semester in mind as they prepare for next semester's registration.

The registration process is primarily a clerical procedure and the time taken out for planning courses is valuable to both advisers and advisees.

Alternate courses should be held in mind in case of course closeouts or in case a student is failing a dash-course.

In order for students to get more of an idea as to just when needed courses will be given, course schedules will be released shortly. These schedules, however, are often changed, hence, they should not be counted on fully.

Fairfield-UB Contest Tops Knights' Schedule

By Irv Sobolov

Tomorrow night the Stags of Fairfield U will be host to our Purple Knights in the ninth meeting between the two schools. The record stands at 5 and 3 in favor of Fairfield with the Stags taking three of the last four games from the UB warriors.

Last year the Knights split with the Stags. UB took the first game 85-66 and dropped the second game 88-79 upon return from the NAIB Tournament.

The Knights extended their record to seven and two when the Christmas vacation started by wins over Pratt and St. Michaels. In the two games records were broken by the UB squad.

In the 113-70 win over Pratt, the Knights broke the record for the most points scored by a UB squad in a single game.

In the St. Michaels game, Lou Saccone broke the Bridgeport Armory scoring record for an individual when he racked up 32 points against the Michaelmen.

Next Week the Knights will play three games before the break for finals. Wednesday, the Knights will travel to New Britain to take on the Teachers of New Britain State Teachers College.

Friday, the Knights will play host to the Rough Riders of Rider College.

Saturday, the Knights will again play the host and this time it will be to American International College, which was the New England representative to the N. A. I. B. tournament last year at Kansas City.
